Mrs. Fiorelli Entertains Club

Mrs. A. R. Fiorelli was hostess to the Torrance Terrace Garden club meeting last Wednesday at her home, 1003 Acacia Ave.

After refreshments, a business meeting was held, at which time new members were accepted into the club, and plans made for members of the club to attend the Floral Designers Annual Flower Arrangement Tea in North Hollywood.

Mrs. Victor Benstead demonstrated planting Rex Begonias in peat moss from cuttings. The foliage of the begonia has beautiful jewel colors of many shades of green, red, purple and silver. They grow best in lath houses and shady places protected from the wind. The mother begonia originated in South America, Mrs. Benstead said.

Plans were also made for a Silver Tea to be held at the YWCA on Oct. 24. Mrs. J. W. Chadwick will be the guest speaker. Mr. and Mrs. Chadwick of the Chadwick Gardens, are well known in the South Bay area for their orchids.

They specialize in growing Cymbidium and Cypripedium orchids. The program will begin at 1:30 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

Henry Veltmann is shown here, with skillet in hand, ready to serve (from left) Mrs. E. M. Hoyt, Mrs. C. W. Gift and Mrs. R. L. Forshee. A Country Fair is being held in conjunction with the breakfast. Serving will be done from 7 a.m. until 2 p.m. Proceeds will go to the club's philanthropic projects. The public is invited to have breakfast with the club members and enjoy the numerous booths and games.

Annual "Pancake Breakfast" By Las Vecinas Sunday

El Retiro Park is the setting, next Sunday morning is the time, and the event is the annual Pancake breakfast and Country Fair sponsored by the Las Vecinas Woman's club. The aroma of sausages, bacon and pancakes, cooked by none other than the husbands of club members, will permeate the early morning air in the park. Serving will begin at 7 a.m. The hours have been arranged to accommodate churchgoers so that they may have breakfast before or after church since the breakfast menu will be served until 2 p.m. Jack Veltmann is chairman of the breakfast event.

In addition to breakfast there will be a country store, which will offer all kinds of food and household products at low, low prices. Mrs. Florence Washington and her committee are in charge of the store.

Hank Veltmann and Lauri O'Keefe will conduct the fish pond for the delight of the children. Flora Hoag's handcraft booth will provide ceramics, woven items, aprons, dish towels, and other Christmas gift items. Jan Cooley is in charge of the white elephant booth.

On the day preceding the breakfast, Saturday, Oct. 20, there will be a food sale in front of the market on Pacific Coast Hwy. Mrs. Irma Hoyt and her committee will have a variety of goodies for sale, all kinds of cakes, cookies, pies, etc.

This is the fifth year that Las Vecinas has held this combined breakfast and bake sale. Proceeds go to the fund to support the philanthropic endeavors of the club.

Mrs. Betty Matson, president of Las Vecinas, and Mrs. Doris Corazza, ways and means chairman, extend an invitation to the public to attend.

These are your Oilmen

This is part of the team that works to supply oil for millions of people. Here are the geologists, surveyors, land men, riggers, drillers, pipe-line crews, refinery stillmen, traffic men... the Mobilgas dealer in your neighborhood.

The education and backgrounds of these men, are as varied as their faces. But they, and their co-workers, have two important goals in common: to do a job well, and to further the progress of their industry.

This requires the combined skills of men working in business units of every size — from the independent service station proprietor to those working in a multi-million dollar refinery. Together, they supply two-thirds of the energy used in America. Together, they oil the wheels of progress.

Respected throughout the world for their part in peace and progress, these are the faces of the oil industry. These are oilmen.
